

FILTER HOLDING FRAME

Filter Holding Frames are used in filter banks to house primary and/or secondary filters.

These frames are constructed from 1.2mm galvanised sheet steel with four die-punched holes on each side to allow for easy installation. Stainless steel is also available on special request.